

*We work with thread and fabric and such.
We chat and laugh and eat way too much.
We are quilters and knitters
and cute garment fitters.*

*Some of us stitch and some of us glue.
Some use hooks in our constructive milieu.
Projects from old or fashioned all new,
No button escapes our creative view.*

*We dress in shirts that proclaim our craft.
We sew for others until we're daft.
We teach each other our crafting tricks.
We lean on each other through all of life's licks.*

*For Sew and Tell, we toe the line
Waiting our turn for praise sublime.
We watch as we wonder over projects so fine,
Is her stash really bigger than mine?*

*From meeting to meeting,
We give out this greeting:
May your stitches be true,
And Happy New Year to you.*

Happy Stitching in the New Year!

— Scrapbag Quilt Club